ASSEMBLIES FOR THE COMING WEEK: Pastoral Leader Assemblies (Years 7-10)

The weather forecast for next week is that temperatures will remain high and so we will extend the uniform arrangements we have put in place this week for the whole of next week, until Thursday 26th (Friday is INSET day) when we will review arrangements for the week after that.

Dear parents and Carers,

It has been great to have proper summer weather this week and the atmosphere at college has been great.

As we reach the end of another busy week, we want to take a moment to express just how incredibly proud we are of our Year 11 students. This week marks their final day of exams, a significant milestone after months of dedicated hard work and preparation. We look forward to their leaver's assembly and prom next Thursday. Our pride also extends to our Year 10 students, who have commenced their mock exams this week. It's been truly impressive to observe the mature and focused approach they've taken to this important assessment period. They've demonstrated a strong commitment to their studies, handling the demands of mock exams with a calm and serious demeanour.

This week also marks National Thank a Teacher Day. Of course, there doesn't need to be a set day when we thank a teacher or member of support staff – we can do that anytime and my colleagues are really very grateful indeed for the praise and thanks they get from Wyvern parents throughout the year. But as we come to the end of an academic year, perhaps the National Thank a Teacher Day is a good reminder to do so. Please do take a moment to think about and email a member of staff who has made a positive difference to your child's learning, wellbeing or development. We have lots of staff who give, purely out of goodwill, things they are not paid to do out of hours and then there are those who do the core business of the job in a way that brings the best out of students. We are lucky to have at Wyvern so many passionate and enthusiastic staff who work hard for our students.

Every day we each make hundreds of decisions on the spur of the moment about how we will respond to things students say and do. We cannot expect any person to get those decisions right 100% of the time; it is right and natural for parents to get in touch when we do get something wrong – but it is greatly appreciated when we hear that we are getting things right too!

Regards
Mr Rule

Payment for Practical Work in Design Technology – KS3

Click here for a letter from the Technology Department regarding payment contributions toward KS3 practical work in Design & Technology.

Hot , hot , hot!

It goes without saying.....but please make sure that your son/daughter has a refillable water bottle, sun cream and a hat if they wish. The weather forecast for next week is more of the same, so it is essential that all pupils are adequately prepared for this type of weather. Please can I stress that, whilst Mr Rule has somewhat relaxed the dress code, all pupils are to wear appropriate clothing for school. It was made clear in the communication that went home that pupils are not permitted to wear black shorts, cycling shorts or hot pants, however, there appears to be an abundance of these popping up on year 7 students. Please can I ask you to check what your son/daughter is wearing against this criteria, as repeat breaches of this will result in me asking them to change back into their usual school uniform.

The focus for the next few weeks is 'spreading kindness like confetti'. This has come about as a result in an increase of unkind behaviour being displayed towards others within the year group. I ran an assembly looking at what it means to be kind, what type of person we want to be, how we want others to view us and whether we could tip the see saw of selflessness vs selfishness in a much more positive direction. Pupils have been tasked with performing and recording their acts of kindness, both at school and at home, and tutors are keeping a record of this in their tutor bases. Don't be alarmed, but please equally praise, if your child comes home and asks if they can cook dinner, if they randomly hug you or if they (I can't promise) tidy their bedroom without being asked. This is all part of the plan..... I am hoping that by putting others first, completing some selfless tasks and seeing the reaction that this gets in return, we will be able to rebuild the ethos and culture of kindness to all.

Topping our kindness achievement totals this week are 7G1 with a whopping 528 points which is nearly 100 more than 7P1 who are currently in second place with 416 points, closely followed by 7D2 with 404 points. Leading the way in this category is Bertie (7G1), Anna (7H1) and Poppy (7C1) - well done, keep up the good work.

Only a few more weeks to go, but still plenty to look forward to....

YEAR 8 NOTICES

Mock Interview Day on Wednesday 2nd July 2025

We are holding our annual Mock Interview Day on Wednesday 2nd July 2025 in the Dance Studio.

All Year 10 students will have a 10 minute, 1:1 interview and receive feedback the following week. We have interviewers coming in to school from various business backgrounds and students will be completing their CVs in tutor time over the next few weeks.

If students wish, they can wear smart interview dress, but please do not go and buy a new outfit just to wear for the day, their full school uniform, school trousers/skirt and a smart top or shirt will suffice. School Policy still applies in regard to make up, shoes and jewellery.

Over the next few weeks during tutor time, students will be given further information about the day, including what to wear, interview tips and their interview times.

We hope students enjoy the day and gain some valuable experience, which they can develop in the future, when they have job, college and university interviews.

Kind Regards
Mrs Gough

As we move towards the end of June we would like to bring to your attention the Year 10 trial exam timetable which you can find here: Trial-Exams-June-2025-Timetable.pdf Students will get to experience exams as they will happen in year 11 which will give them valuable insight into the GCSE exams next year. Teachers will be talking about the exams and revision for the trial exams so please encourage students to ask if they have any questions or concerns.
