

You need to revise these topics for your exam:

- 1) Surgery techniques over time
- 2) Developments in medical knowledge in the Renaissance – Vesalius, Pare and Harvey
- 3) Edward Jenner and vaccination – What did he discover? How did people react to his discoveries?
- 4) Causes of disease in the medieval era – Problems in the towns, medieval beliefs, the Black Death
- 5) Advancements in medical knowledge over time – medieval to modern day (four humours, Vesalius, Pare and Harvey, Louis Pasteur, scanning techniques in the 20th century).
- 6) Letchworth Garden City Site Study – key features of Letchworth / why was Letchworth a place of importance?

Date	Homework
11 th May	Surgery over time + medical knowledge in the Renaissance <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Create a key word glossary on surgery techniques from the medieval era to modern day. • Create cue cards on Vesalius, Pare and Harvey which show their main changes. • Test yourself until you are confident.
18 th May	Vaccination + Medieval causes of disease <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Summarise Jenner’s discoveries on vaccination on half a page of A4. Produce a chart showing positive and negative views on vaccination. • Create a giant mind map on Medieval causes of disease and the impact of the Black Death • Teach somebody (a family member or your cat) everything they need to know about vaccination and causes of illness and disease in the Medieval era. • Go over your notes over half term if you can.
1 st June	Medical knowledge over time + Letchworth Site Study <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Produce a detailed plan on how medical knowledge changed during each time period – Medieval, Renaissance, Industrial Revolution and Modern. • Letchworth Site Study revision • Make sure you are clear on exam technique and how to answer the questions.

Exam dates: Option B 9th June; Option D 15th June; Option C 17th June; Option A 18th June