

WORKING IN...

ECONOMICS

from the unifrog
Careers library!

Helpful to have as skills, but also things you can gain through studying economics

SKILLS REQUIRED

organising

critical thinking

planning

independence

digital literacy

numeracy

FINANCE

Financial adviser

Help people manage their money by giving advice on savings, investments, and pensions

Management accountant

Look after a company's finances and find ways to help them make more money

Actuary

Use maths and statistics to predict financial risks for businesses

Investment banker

Help companies make money and reach financial decisions for growth

GOVERNMENT AND POLITICS

Local government officer

Help deliver local services and support projects that improve communities

Policy adviser

Analyse issues and advise the government on the best options and actions to take

Diplomat

Help to promote and protect national interests, companies, and citizens overseas

RESEARCH AND DATA

Economist

Study the economy and help organisations make informed financial decisions

Social researcher

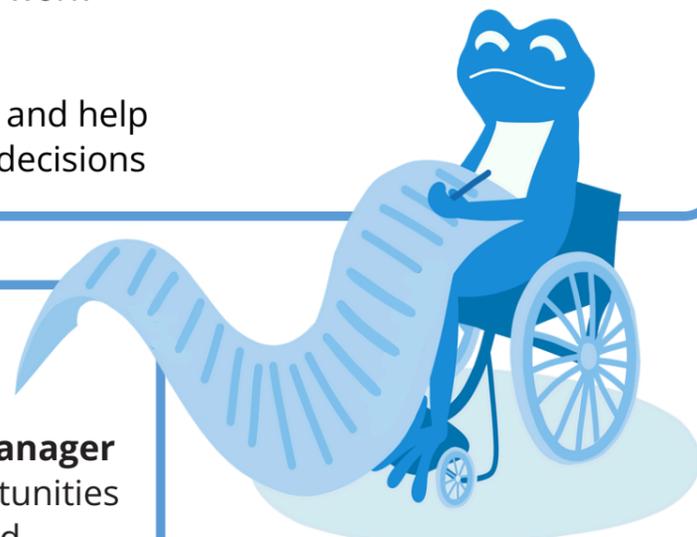

Study and analyse social issues like unemployment, crime, poverty, and gender

Political scientist

Study political systems and use research to explain how governments and elections work

Data analyst

Look at data to spot trends and help organisations make better decisions

BUSINESS

Business development manager

Find new clients and opportunities to help a company grow and increase sales

Business analyst

Use data to understand problems and help companies improve processes and performance

Compliance officer

Make sure a company follows all relevant legal and internal rules

HALL OF FAME

Belgian fashion designer:

Diane Von Furstenberg

People in these jobs can earn between £38,000 to £77,000 per year

By 2035 there could be 436,252 more jobs in roles like this